PROCEEDINGS OF THE MID-YEAR SESSION OF THE WAKE ASSOCIATION

Held With the First Baptist Church

Fuquay Springs, North Carolina

The Mid-Year Session of the Wake Baptist Association met with the First Baptist Church, Fuquay Springs, Sunday, April 29, 1951. The Moderator called the session to order at 11:00 A. M. The Senior Choir of Wake Baptist Grove, Garner, sang the opening Hymn. The 23rd Psalms was repeated in unison for the Scripture, after which the prayer, Jesus taught his disciples was recited in concert. "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross," was the next selection. After the devotion, Mr. J. W. Yeargin came forward and discussed the theme, "The Functioning Church Through the Sunday School." The speaker stated that he was glad the committee had included him on their Mid-Year Program. He further stated that the church is not adquately organized until it includes the Sunday School. The Sunday School officers and teachers have the great opportunity to win the lost to Christ. Mr. Yeargin presented a very informative and impressive address.

Mr. W. H. Quarles, Jr., was the next speaker who came before the Association. He stated that he brings greetings from the executive heads of the State Convention and the New President of Shaw University, William R. Strassner. Mr. Quarles pointed out that if the 1700 Baptist churches of North Carolina would contribute $1 per person annually to the objectives of our convention we would over raise enough money for our work. If we are to get the true missionary spirit, we must become apart of that Scripture which teaches us, "God so loved the world that He gave his only begotton Son that whosoever thus believeth in him shall not perish but have everlasting life."

After the conclusion of Mr. Quarles' talk, the choir sang, "I Am Bound For Higher Ground." Rev. Stokes presented the Rev. Nylus Avery, who was licensed and ordained at Wake Baptist Grove Church, but was leaving this Association to assume his new duties as minister of a Baptist Church in Asheville, North Carolina. Reverend Avery said that his heart was filled with grief and joy as he leaves the many friends in this vicinity. The speaker's text was: "Brethern, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before."—Philippians 3:13. Reverend Avery built his message around the following propositions: (1) Singleness of Purpose, this one thing I do. (II) There must be ceasless effort on the part of the Runner. The speaker used the life of Paul to illustrate his message. A very high spirit was manifested as the choir sang, "He Is So Real To Me."

Deacons Jones and Robert Wilder were asked to lift the offering, the amount realized was $77.00.

The moderator called for visitors at this time and Brothers Whitted, Jones and Forest, of the Mt Bright Baptist Church of Hillsboro were presented to the body. The morning's session adjourned with, "God Be With You", and Reverend Avery pronounced the benediction.

The Woman's Auxiliary had charge of the afternoon's ssssion. The Rev. H. B. Floyd and Rev. John Parks conducted the devotion. Several selections were sung, after which Mrs. Perry presented Miss Eva Merritt who spoke on, "The Functioning Church Through the Missionary Department." The speaker pointed out that the church is a body of baptized believers, and there were too many Missionary departments interdependent of the church. They should be under the authority of the church for the missionary department has as its purpose bringing the Kingdom of God into the world.

The following persons were appointed to revise the constitution and make their report at the annual session of the Association in August: George S. Stokes, C. R. Trotter, C. H. Heath, C. C. Jones, Bartel Lane, Avery Horton O. S. Bullock and Guyon Perry.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

Since education is the basic foundation on which we build our civilization, material and spiritual structure, and since our Christian Institutions have been so badly neglected by the masses, we therefore, recommend the following:

1. We support Shaw University with our finance; and, also by encouraging our young people to seek training there.

2. That special training be given our members in the field missions

3. That our Ministers and Deacons avail themselves with every opportunity for training.

4. That every church organize and maintain a strong Church School and Baptist Training Union.

5. When possible, encourage the promotion of a Daily Vacation Bible School.

6. That we approve the action taken by our leaders in trying to gain equal facilities for all races in our public school system in North Carolina.

7. We further recommend that each pastor set up a training course for all those who cannot read and write with in his church and community.

Mr. C. W. Foster, Chairman
Respectfully submitted,

Proceedings of the Eighty-Fifth Annual Session of the WAKE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION

The Eighty-Fifth annual session of the Wake Baptist Association met with the Elizabeth Baptist Church, near Spring Hope, North Carolina. The devotionals were led by the Reverend Charles T. Jones and the Rev. A. L. Bridges. A portion of the 4th chapter of Romans was read for the Scripture. Reverend Bridges offered prayer, after which, "Jesus eKeps Me Near the Cross," was sung. A short discussion on the theme of the Association was led by Reverend Jones.

Moderator Stokes asked the Reverend D. Hargrove, the pastor of the host church to make the welcome address. The pastor came forward and stated that the Church and community were pleased to entertain the 85th Annual Session of the Association, and that he felt sure that the work of the organization would be an inspiration to the Church.

At this point in the meeting a few moments were given for expression from the various delegates. Several representatives made remarks about the work of their church.

By now the time had arrived for our first speaker, the Reverend J. H. Clanton, who discussed the theme, "Church Unity Through The Ministers and Deacons Union." Reverend Clanton said, "the church is like a human body, evey part must function if a person is to do his best." The Ministers and Deacons Union, The Wake County Sunday School Convention, The Woman's Auxiliary are parts of the Wake Baptist Association and must function for the association to do its best work.

The Introductory Sermon for the Association was delivered by the Reverend A. L. Morgan. He made some remarks and announced his subject from the 20th Chapter of John and 21st verse: "As my Father hath sent me, even so send I You." The subject was "The Mission of the Church." The speaker set forth the following propositions: (1) The Mission of the Church is to save Men. (2) Jesus teaches us the Mission of the Church as set forth in the Great Commission. "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: "Teaching them to observe all things what so ever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world" (3) The Mission of the Church is to Teach Peace. (4) The Mission of the Church is teach Personal Confidence. Reverend Morgan delivered a very inspiring message. The Reverend J. H. Cooke led the Association in prayer.

The hour now had arrived for the offering, Deacon Haskins of the First Baptist, Wilson and Deacon M. D. Haywood of the First Baptist, Raleigh, came before the body. The amount raised was $31.15.

The Reverend T. A. Watkins was presented to the Association as the new pastor of the First Baptist Church of Wilson. The morning session closed with the benediction by Reverend Morgan.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

The second day's session of the Wake Baptist Association convened at 1:30 A. M. with Elizabeth Baptist Church. The devotionals were conducted by Brother Rody Green and Bro. H. L. Mitchell. Bro. Green read the scripture while Brother Morgan offered the prayer. The congregation sang, "I Am So Glad I Am Here." About fifteen minutes were used for expressions from the various delegates.

The next item to acclaim our attention was a discussion, "Baptist Church Doctrine," led by Rev. C. C. Jones. The speaker said that Baptist accept (1) The New Testament Way of Life. (2) Baptist Believe in Regeneration (3) Baptist Believe in Baptism by Immersion.

By this time the Reverend O. L. Sherrill, the Executive Secretary of the General Baptist State Convention, was presented to our Association. He stated that because of the splendid cooperation of this Association he would not make a speech but simply thank the Association for their past cooperation and beg of them their continued support. Rev. Sherrill presented Rev. John Flemming, the Director of Religious Education to bring the message to the convention Rev. Flemming set forth the objectives of the General Baptist Convention. The four objectives were 1. Shaw University. 2. State Missions, 3. Foreign Missions and the State Development program. Our money is spent in these four directions said Rev. Flemming.

The hour for the sermon had arrived, and Rev. Wiggins, the scheduled speaker was absent, therefore, it was motioned that the Rev. Isaac Lee, who was scheduled to preach in the afternoon, preach at this time. Rev. Lee used for his text the 28th verse of 11th chapter of the Gospel of John.

"The Master is come and calleth for thee." His subject was "The Master Showing His Power. The speaker used the story of Mary, Martha and Lazarus to illustrate his message. Rev. Millered Jones offered prayer following the sermon. An offering was taken to the amount of $23.04. The morning session adjourned.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

Sisters Jones and Harris opened the afternoon's session. Sister Jones read seven verses of 12th chapter of Matthew. After the devotionals, a motion prevailed that the Rev. Millered Jones bring the afternoon message. The motion was carried and Rev. Avery Horton led in singing, "Am I A Soldier of the Cross?" After which he presented Rev. Jones. Rev. Jones took his text from the 2nd verse of the 4th chapter of 2nd Kings: "Drive, and go forward; slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee." The speaker admonished his hearers not to slack our reigns but go forward in "Kingdom Promotion," The offering was taken to the amount of $5.36.

At this time the Moderator called for all reports. The Committees on Education, Obituary and Finance made their reports. The acting treasurer, Mr. Garriet Laws, acting for his father who has been ill, made the Treasurer's report. The Rev. A. A. Anderson, the auditor attested the fact that the Treasurer's report was correct. A motion prevailed that the reports be adopted.

The Committee on Place submitted its report. The Committee recommended that the Association will hold its next annual session with the New Providenc Baptist Church near Varina, North Carolina.

Benediction.

of the

Thirty-Third Annual Session

of the

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Wake Baptist Association met with the Elizabeth Baptist Church near Spring Hope, North Carolina. The opening session of the Auxiliary was held jointly with the parent body. In this session, Miss Susie Wilcox and Mrs. Nora McClain were appointed to the Finance Committee on behalf of the Auxiliary.

Mrs. Mollie Dunston presided over the afternoon session. She made brief remarks and asked other ladies to do so in regard to their missionary circles. Mrs M. Perry, Miss Penny Perry and Mrs. Albritten spoke about the work of their circles. Next to claim our attention was the President's Address. Mrs. Dunston emphasized the word promotion in her remarks. She stated that Christian women must strive to grow from one degree of grace to another. Following the address Mrs. Ora Webb and Miss Shirley Mitchell sang, "Can He Trust in Me?" Miss Lena Marriott, the Corresponding Secretary, made her report She stated that she had visited many churches and their circles during the year, and from her observation the circles were taking on new life.

WEDNESDAY NIGHT

The devotional services were led by Miss Gerodine Robinson and Mrs. Bertha Tabron. "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms," was sung. The Scripture was taken from Mark 10th chapter, verses 45-52. Miss Robinson had charge of a very fine Junior program. Following the program, Mrs. Dunston presented the Reverend A. A. Anderson to bring the sermon for the occasion. His text was taken from the 7th chapter of John. His subject was "The Fountain that Satisfies." Rev. Anderson delivered a very fine message. The evening's offering amounted to $5.34. Benediction.

All committees of the Woman's Auxiliary functioned jointly with the parent body.

RECOMMENDATION OF THE MODERATOR

1 That all persons draw nearer to God through Jesus Christ.

2. That all Christians read and study the Bible daily to learn of God and His Riches.

3. That we, the churches of the Wake Baptist Association, strive earnestly to bring the "Lost sheep of the house of Israel into the Church of Christ.

4. That the Church endeavor to raise money for missions and Christian Education during the Fall Season when it is more in circulation among our rural areas.

5. The Association will give aid, as far as it is reasonable to loyal churches in need.

6. That this body will help worthy young men in the ministry who are studying at Shaw.

7. That Ministers and Deacons Union, The Wake County Sunday School convention, The Woman's Union of Wake County and The Wake Missionary Union be auxiliaries to the Wake Association.

8. That we hold the $1.00 standard for Missions and Christian Education to eb paid by each member of each church in this Association.

9. That the Associaton will urge its Churches to carry on the Leadership Training program.

10. That we meet in Extra-Session during the Fall season.

11. That each church hold a Daily Vacation Bible School when possible.

12. That all churches cooperate with Baptist Headquarters as far as possible.

13. The cost of living has gone up, I urge therefore, the churches to raise the pastors salaries in accordance with the times and their ability to pay.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

Since education is the basic foundation on which we build our civilization, material and spiritual structure, and since our Christian Institutions have been so badly neglected by the masses, we therefore recommend the following:

1. We support Shaw University with our finance; and, also by encouraging our young people to seek training there.
2. That special training be given our members in the field of missions.
3. That our Ministers and Deacons avail themselves with every opportunity for training.
4. That every church organize and maintain a strong Church, School and Baptist Training Union.
5. When possible, encourage the promotion of a Daily Vacation Bible School.
6. That we approve the action taken by our leaders in trying to gain equal facilities for all races in our public school system in North Carolina.
7. We further recommend that each pastor set up a training course for all those who cannot read and write with in his church and community.

Respectfully submitted,
Mr. C. W. Foster, Chairman
Rev. Avery Horton
Rev. J. W. Clanton
Mr. B. W. Lane
Mr. A. C. Parrish
